WILSON AND 19 REDS CONVICTED; TO PRISON

POLES AND REDS TALKING PEACE, ROUMANIA WAR

Soviet Keeps Up Push on Warsaw.

BULLETIN.
BY GEORGE SELDES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
BERLIN, Aug. 2.—Thousands of Poles, taking shelter in the August forests and marshes, are surrounded by Russian cavalry. The bolsheviks have established a line of patrols from Augustow to Goniow.
The bolshevik victory has strengthened the communist movement in East Prussia, where it is proceeding. Zittau, Saxony, is in the hands of the Independent Socialists, communists, and revolutionaries, who have ousted the government and established a soviet committee of fifteen. There have been serious clashes between workers and the police. A general strike has been proclaimed and martial law has been declared.

BULLETIN.
LYCK, East Prussia, Aug. 2.—There is a big movement of bolshevik Don Cossacks along the border. The Poles continuing their resistance. Fighting continues despite the armistice. The Poles recaptured Lomza from a small bolshevik squadron. The German-Russian common border now is 120 miles long, from Wladislaw to Friedland.

LONDON, Aug. 2, 2 a. m.—The Polish and bolshevik armistice delegates met Friday evening at Kobryn, on the frontier east of Brest-Litovsk, and the negotiations began Saturday morning. Jack Radak representing the bolsheviks, a dispatch to the Daily Mail from Warsaw.

Terms May Be Too Severe.
WARSAW, Aug. 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—[Delayed.]—Doubt was expressed in diplomatic circles today as to whether an agreement for an armistice would come out of the negotiations between the Polish and soviet delegates at Barmen. It was thought the soviet authorities were likely to insist upon terms too severe for the Poles to accept.

Polish Defense Stiffens.
BERLIN, Aug. 2.—The stiffening of Polish resistance is ascribed by the Associated Press to the fact that the Poles at the front of the first contingent of the new volunteer forces. The Polish retreat has slowed down on the River Pissa, which rises in the Masurian lakes and flows into the Baltic near Novgorod.

Hard Blow Dealt Reds.
BY FLOYD GIBBONS.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
WARSAW, Aug. 2.—Two counter-attacks, devised by French staff officers, have been made against the bolshevik headquarters of the fourth Polish army, are in progress on the northwest and southeast line between Bialystok and Bielsk.

French heavy artillery, manned by volunteers, obliterated two Red strongholds twelve miles apart, following which Polish cavalry galloped through the forests and tore into the enemy's lines.

League Seeks World Union Against Reds

BY HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
SAN SEBASTIAN, Aug. 2.—In the absence of the plan last year, the league of nations council today adopted the French plan for an international general staff of military experts to propose plans of operations in event any state makes war or violates an agreement in the future.
This action is believed to precede the preparation of a combined action by the world's powers against bolshevik Russia, and against Germany should the Germans join the Reds.
French Plan Since 1918.
When the league was being organized Leon Bourgeois tried to provide for an international standing army and navy to enforce its decisions, and when that failed through British and American opposition he tried to secure a general staff with Marshal Foch heading and controlling the army of occupation.
Both plans, then blocked, now have been put through by M. Bourgeois and Gen. Fayolle, camouflaged as a scheme to unify and coordinate any economic blockade against a belligerent. Adoption of the plan is expected to be announced at tomorrow's session.

Natives at England's Order.
The league covenant provides for an economic blockade which all members are pledged to apply immediately against any aggressor state and also any further forcible measures necessary to prevent league members from trading with the enemy—the only possible way being by naval blockade. Under the plan the council has accepted, the fleets of the members of the league will be ordered and directed by the naval branch of the league of nations' general staff, headed by England's sea power. A Frenchman would head the military branch.

If the United States adheres to the league the United States navy might be ordered to blockade the ports of certain powers not warring on the United States and probably only refusing to join in a common war against an aggressor state.

Adopt Reds' Court Plan.
The league council this afternoon adopted in entirety the plan of the advisory jurists committee for an international court of justice which is practically all the work of Elihu Root. The proposals are: First—Each member of the league will nominate two candidates. Second—The court will have eleven judges and four deputy judges. Third—They will serve nine years. Fourth—In a case arising between a power having no judge and one having a judge the former will have a right of representation. In case neither has a judge on the bench they will be entitled to deputy judges. Fifth—The court is open to all states. Sixth—The court will be competent for all cases before it by agreement of the two parties. Seventh—The court will be competent without agreement of both parties if both are league members. Eighth—The court can give judgment by default. Ninth—Judgment is final, except in discovery of new facts by the league or a third party, on whom the judgment also is binding.

GIRL WHO SAW SAM LOFTIS DIE WINS FREEDOM

Shayne Gives Vivid Story of Tragedy.

Ruth Woods, pretty 27 year old bookkeeper, of 6757 Winthrop avenue, went home last night. It was her first night home since Friday. It was Friday night that she fled from the apartment of the late Samuel T. A. Loftis, wealthy diamond broker, after an experience which she described as a "nightmare of horror."
She was released by Chief Garrity when the inquest into the death of Loftis, for which she had been held as an eyewitness, could not be concluded. All others held in connection with the case had been previously liberated. Herman Wexler, the chauffeur whose midnight ride with Miss Woods led to a charge of robbery against him, was released under $2,000 bonds.

Inquest Is Dramatic.
It was a series of dramatic moments—that inquest. Beginning with the entry of Miss Woods and her first meeting with her fiancé, Roy M. Shayne, until the doors of her home barred her from the gaze of the curious crowd gathered there, spectators and officials were tense with excitement.
Just a few moments before 2 o'clock—the scheduled hour for the start of the hearing—the automobile from detention house No. 1 drew up before Flier's undertaking rooms at 4986 Broadway.

Her head swathed in a heavy white veil, purchased en route, Miss Woods was the first to alight. Then following came Sgt. John Norton and a policeman. The crowd of several hundred waiting outside the door surged and swirled in a mad effort to see the girl.

"I Trusted Mr. Loftis."
Inside another crowd awaited. A score of newspaper men, a dozen officials. A flood of questions: "Did you hit Loftis? Was it an awful night? Are you going to marry Roy Shayne? Did you ever drink before Friday night?"

"For God's sake, don't," she sobbed. "I can't stand it any more. I can't bear to talk. Please—I'll die!"

And then, a moment later: "What is there to say? I've said it all. I trusted Mr. Loftis; he was Roy's friend. I trusted every one. And then that awful night! I've done nothing wrong. And why abuse me—"

Roy Shayne Appears.
She sobbed aloud, and from the rear by chapel stormed a man. Tall, thick in shoulders, dressed in gray. A tanned complexion, stubborn chin and steel blue eyes. He brushed aside one man who blocked his way—then stood before her.

"Roy! Roy!" was all she said, her low voice broken. He took her arm and led her forward. "It's all right—it's all right now!" he promised her. And somehow those who questioned walked away.

AS GOV. COX WRITES ABOUT THE LEAGUE

FAKER'S VICTIMS MAKE HEROINE OF HIS GIRL SLAYER

(Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.)
(Copyright: 1920.)
MILAN, Aug. 2.—Forced to flee from Philadelphia, where he had been the ringleader of a criminal gang, Francisco Di Cicco returned to his native Filadelfia in Calabria, where he set up a business as a prophet and wonder worker.

In a short time the white bearded charlatan, to whom thousands of women resorted for exercises of magical arts, amassed a small fortune. Reputed a young girl whom he wronged under hypnotic influence, stole back to his cavern with a scythe and hacked the impostor's body to pieces.
While the magistrates assembled for the preliminary hearing of the case headed by the town band, besieged the court, demanding the release of the girl. Repeated attempts were made to rescue her from the carabinieri escort.

The crowd then insisted on accompanying the heroine as far as the prison gates. Amidst enthusiastic cheering and singing children scattered a grand fireworks display at public expense was given in her honor.

ARRESTED WITH $12,000 COUGHLIN BOY RANSOM FUND

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 2.—Pennsylvania state policemen here announced tonight that a man suspected of having received the $12,000 left in hiding near Norristown, Pa., on June 14, as a ransom for Blakeley Coughlin, 13 months old son of George H. Coughlin, who was kidnapped June 2, was arrested in Egg Harbor, N. J., today, and brought to a Pennsylvania jail.
The name of the man and where he was taken could not be learned.

According to a dispatch from Egg Harbor, a Negro arrested there late today by federal agents and Pennsylvania state policemen confessed he had received the $12,000 left by Mr. Coughlin near a railroad bridge.
According to the report, the Negro wrote to the Coughlins, making another demand for money, designating a swamp near the Philadelphia and Reading station in Egg Harbor. State policemen and federal agents went to Egg Harbor and followed and arrested a Negro who went to the swamp this afternoon.

WIFE STARRING CHARLIE CHAPLIN IN "HER DIVORCE"

She Charges Cruelty in Los Angeles Suit.

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—The storm broke late today in the Charlie Chaplin household. Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin filed suit for divorce on the grounds of extreme mental cruelty and bodily injury.
The action had been expected for a long time. She told her friends last March that unless her husband returned to her she would go to court. Mrs. Chaplin also asks that her husband be restrained from disposing of his interest in motion picture films valued at $750,000 and that he be required to account to the court for sums received by him on her account during their married life. If such sums are insufficient to enable her to live as she has lived, she wants the court to make orders as it deems just. A temporary restraining order was issued in the matter of the films and made returnable Monday.

What Wife Charges.
Mrs. Chaplin's complaint fills fourteen pages. Her charges, briefly, are: That their marriage, on Oct. 23, 1918, was secret for four months at the request of her husband, who said if news of it became public it would seriously interfere with his professional career.
That four weeks after the marriage she was taken to a hospital as a result of a nervous breakdown, and the marriage became known at that time, when she suffered by her husband's course of conduct, and criticisms regarding her film contract upset her nerves.

That her husband frequently stayed out until 3 and 4 o'clock in the morning and often times all night.
That, following Christmas, while she was still ill and unable to work, they planned a trip to Mount Lowe, and, despite her love for him, he refused to accompany her there, telling her it was necessary for him to be alone to rest, but instead of that he went to Coronado Beach and joined numerous other men and women in social gaiety.

That, following her release from the hospital after the birth of their baby boy on July 7, 1919 (the baby died three days later) he failed to accompany her home, sending his secretary.

BRENT ALLINSON SAYS "I PAID THE PRICE OF BELIEF"

Brent Dow Allinson talked to a reporter yesterday for the first time since he was released from Leavenworth penitentiary, where he was serving a sentence for relating the draft.
"I have paid the price of my conscientious belief," he said, "and I have come here to rest."
He asserted the recent published accounts of the alleged hardships he was made to undergo while in prison were all true. As to the recently proposed activities of the American Legion posts against the young objector, he said: "I am not afraid of any activities of the North Shore post of the American Legion."

He then asked his mother, Mrs. Thomas W. Allinson, to "request the reporter to end the interview."

Don't Worry, Mr. Autoist, the Kid Is Nearly Dead

To an Identified Automobile Driver. Somewhere in Chicago—Sir: This is merely a brief note to inform you that the little shaver you struck yesterday in front of 1151 Sedgwick street has been identified as a 9 year old Dominick Greco of 1125 Milton avenue. He was unconscious when they found him, both legs crushed and the skull fractured. You must have hit him pretty hard, because he was lying on the sidewalk. The police, of course, are hunting for you, but you need not worry. Dominick will not identify you. He is dying.

Plane's Fall Brings Death to Locklear

Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 2.—Lieut. Omer Locklear, noted "stunt" aviator, and Lieut. Milton Elliott, his aid, were killed tonight when their plane crashed from a distance of 1,000 feet.
Since retiring from active service as a United States army aviator, Locklear had become known as the most daring of the exhibition flyers. He was the first to make a regular "stunt" of dropping from one plane to another in air. He originated many other "hair raising" feats.

McFATRICH GEMS WORTH $10,000 LOST IN TAXICAB

The family jewels, valued at more than $10,000, of the late Dr. J. B. McFatrigh, once president of the Chicago board of education, have been lost. They belong to Mrs. George P. Braun Jr., a daughter of Dr. McFatrigh. She believes she left them in a taxicab she took from the Twelfth street station to her home, 1221 Astor street, last Sunday night after arriving from New York.
Yellow Taxicab company's inspectors and detectives have failed to find any trace of the missing jewels. Mrs. Braun says she is certain she placed the gems, which were in a small leather bag, in the cab. The cab company has been unable to find any chauffeur who made such a trip and officials believe some independent taxicab was called. Mrs. Braun is the wife of the president of the G. P. Braun Oleanmargarine company. She had been in New York on a shopping expedition. Among the missing jewels are an onyx ring, diamond lavalliere, diamond wrist watch, diamond set bracelet, diamond pendant, and a platinum watch set with diamonds.

U. S. WILL JOIN ALLIES TO FIX RUSSIA STATUS

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—Although without official information concerning the proposed conference between the bolsheviks and the allies, the United States, it was indicated today in official circles, most probably will be represented in any conference seeking broadly to solve the status of Russia with the world. The state department has received no specific invitation to enter the proposed conference and no decision is likely to be announced until further details of the proposed gathering have been made known.

Any doubt as to the attitude of the United States was removed by the possible recognition of the Moscow government has been dispelled. President Wilson is determined that there shall be no recognition of the soviets as the supreme authority of Russia. His position in this respect is unchanged.

10 CT. "L" FARES GO INTO EFFECT AT 12 TONIGHT

The elevated lines filed their new schedule of rates with the public utilities commission yesterday afternoon and the 10 cent fare will be in effect after midnight tonight. Cash fares will be 10 cents, but four tickets may be purchased for 35 cents. It was expected the commission would issue an order covering the redemption of the old 7 1/2 cent tickets now outstanding, but this was not done. President Britton 1. Budd announced that all tickets now sold by patrons of the roads will be redeemed at any ticket office or taken as part payment of the increased fare.

Irish Raid Lighthouses; Ocean Liners Are Diverted

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Armed raiders held up the occupants of the Milnes head lighthouse, County Cork, Saturday, and took away twelve hundred rounds of signaling ammunition. The Rosslare coastguard station also was raided and the signaling apparatus taken. According to some of the newspapers today, successive raids on lighthouses have been one of the reasons for diverting trans-Atlantic liners from Queenstown.

ALL FACE 1 TO 5 YEAR TERMS FOR SEDITION

Fines Must Be Paid by 5 Defendants.

William Brown Lloyd and his nineteen fellow advocates of a "dictatorship of the proletariat" were found guilty of sedition last night by a jury in Judge Oscar Hebbel's court. All were sentenced to imprisonment. Some received jail sentences. Others—including Lloyd—were sentenced to the penitentiary, some for one year and others for an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years.
In addition to prison terms, Lloyd and two others were fined $2,000 and two were fined $1,000 each.

Prepared for the Verdict.
The reading of the verdict found the defendants not unprepared. They had expected conviction, and when the first verdict was read finding Lloyd guilty, all made brave attempts to smile. Some succeeded. As each in his turn heard his fate, a look of nervousness appeared, but soon thoughts of "martyrdom" apparently drove away the gloom. During the polling of the jury they remained unmoved.

The defendants and the penalties inflicted follow:

Prison Sentences and $2,000 Fines.
WILLIAM BROWN LLOYD, Winnetka millionaire, sergeant at arms at Communist Labor party convention, organizer, backer, and leading spirit in the "movement".

LUDWIG LORE, New York, editor of Class Struggle; helped draft constitution.

ARTHUR PROCTOR, Chicago, owner of Clarion book store, 224 North Clark street, meeting place of radicals; member of county committee.

Prison Sentence and $1,000 Fine.
MAX BEDACHT, San Francisco, Cal.; member of the national executive and platform committee.

JACK CARNEY, Duluth, Minn.; member of national executive committee, editor and publisher of Truth.

Indeterminate Prison Sentences.
L. E. KATTEFFIELD, Dighton, Kas.; brains of organization, national organizer, practically prepared party's platform.

EDGAR OWENS, Washington, D. C.; state secretary; helped draft constitution.

L. K. ENGLAND, Moline, Ill.; member of state committee.

NIELS ELIAR, Chicago; member of national executive committee and Cook county propaganda committee.

One Year in Penitentiary.
SAMUEL F. HANKIN.

MORRIS A. STOLLAR, Chicago; member of county executive committee.

JAMES A. MEISSINGER, Chicago; member county executive committee.

CHARLES KRUMHOLTZ, Chicago; member of county executive committee.

SAMUEL ASH, Chicago, lawyer; one of organizers.

One Year in the County Jail.
PERRY SHIPMAN, Rock Island, Ill.; member of state committee.

DR. OSCAR J. BROWN, DeKalb, Ill.; organizer, delegate to national convention and member of platform committee.

EDWIN FIRTH, Indianapolis, Ind.; national delegate and organizer.

DR. KARL F. SANDBERG, Chicago; organizer and delegate to national convention.

NIELS J. CHRISTENSEN, delegate to national convention and member international relations committee.

JOHN VOGEL.

"Reds Taught a Lesson."
The verdict was received with great satisfaction by State's Attorney Hoyne and Special Prosecutor Frank Comerford. The latter declared it "a history making verdict," which would "silence sedition."

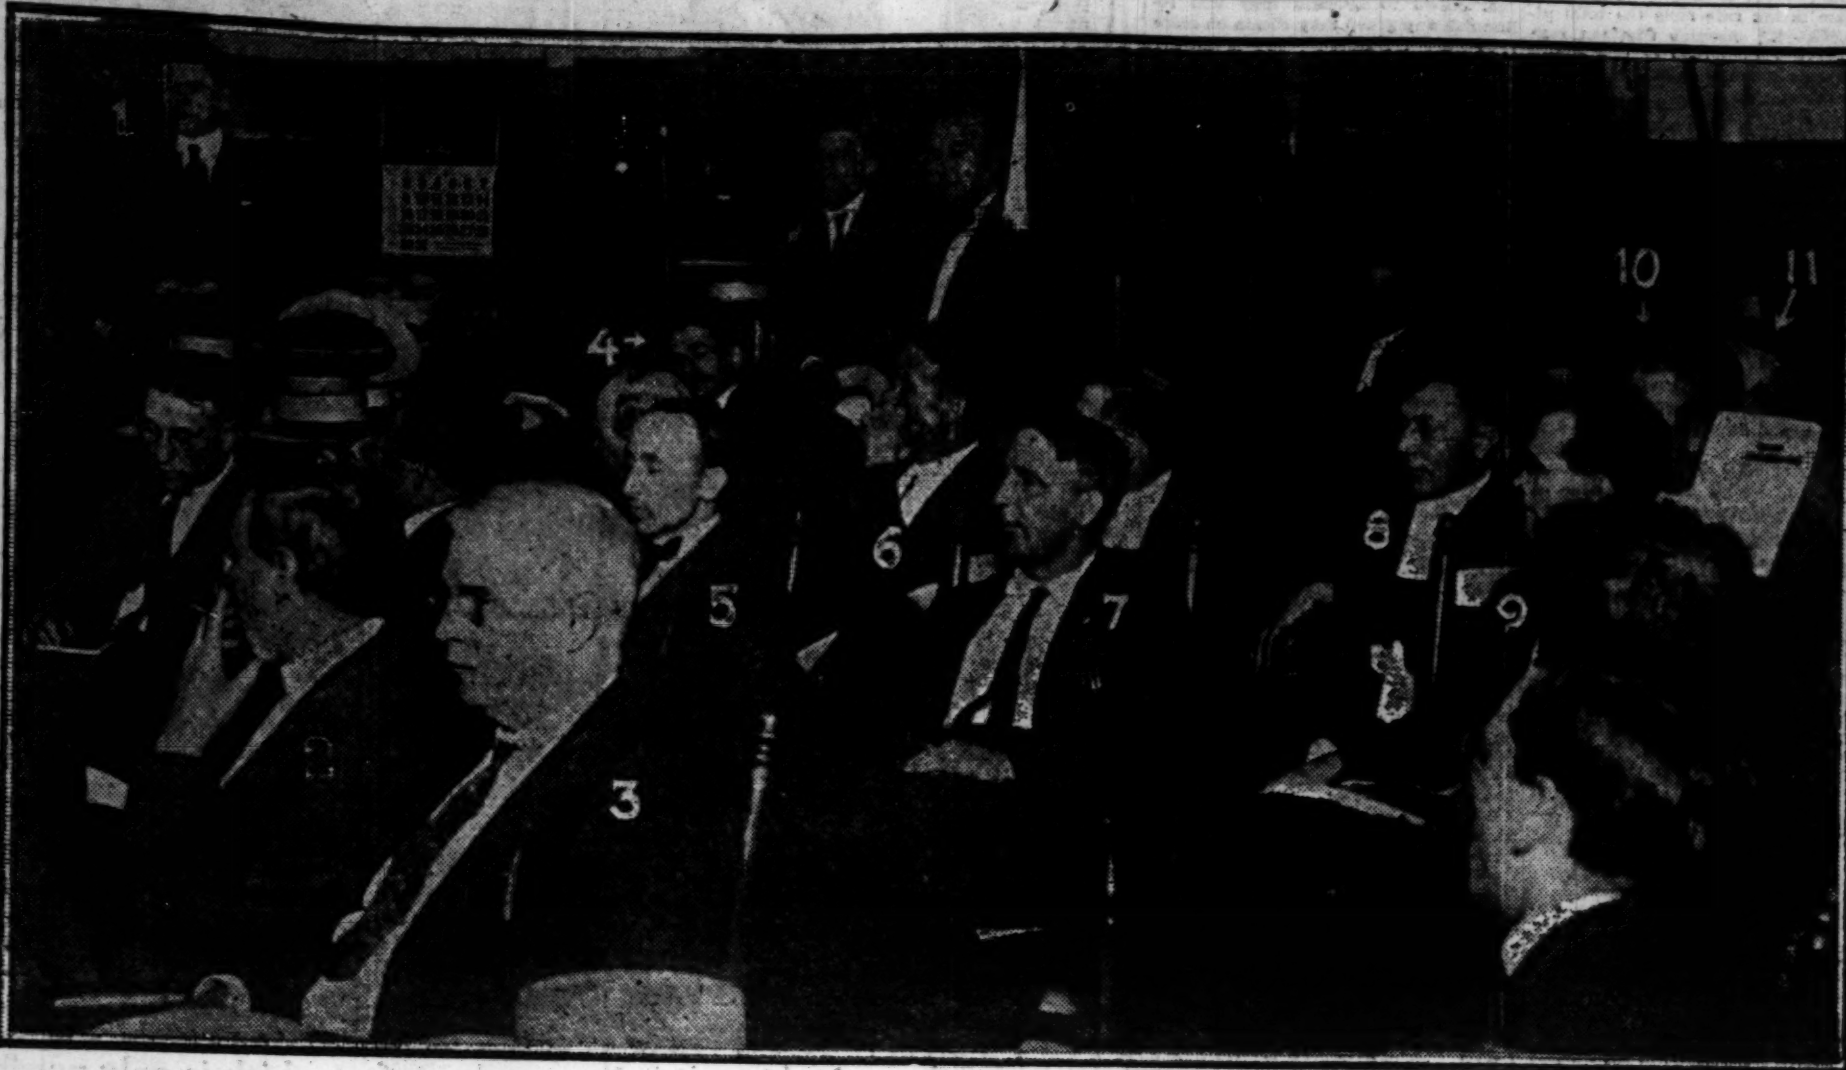

"It will serve notice on those who seek to foment unrest in this crisis of world reconstruction of what is in store for them," he said. "It shows that America will think her way out of the difficulties ahead and that advocates of violence will not be permitted to plunge us into chaos and civil war."

The verdict convicts the movement as well as the men behind it, and establishes a precedent which makes criminal the meeting of men for the purpose of advocating the overthrow of the government.

"The unlawful mouthings of traitors is condemned. Organized labor is vindicated. They claimed union card carriers followed the red flag. Union men on the jury knew better. The revolutionary use of the strike is made a crime. The greatest enemies of organized labor in this country are the 'Reds.'"

Darrow Closes a Phrase.
When pressed for a statement Lloyd put the matter up to Mr. Darrow. "Certainly an interview," said Darrow. "Were I in your place I should

PONZI UNWINDS
NEW BANK ROLL
AT ALL-DAY RUNDemands of Creditors
Cheerfully Met.

Boston, Mass., Aug. 2.—The offices of the company headed by Charles Ponzi, whose alleged operations in foreign exchange are under federal and state investigation, were closed late today after another all day run by investors, with the announcement that they would be opened tomorrow morning and payment in full continued to depositors who desire to have their funds returned.

When the offices were closed a long line of investors was still outside, the last of hundreds who had come for the return of their funds after reading in a morning newspaper a statement by Ponzi's former publicity agent alleging the company was insolvent.

All Claims Paid in Full.
All claims were paid in full today, it was announced, the principal being returned to holders of ninety day notes which had not matured, and principal and 60 per cent interest being paid on matured notes. Ponzi estimated that he had paid out $3,500,000 during the run, which began one week ago, but insisted that he was solvent.

Boards were nailed over windows and doors of the offices tonight and police placed on guard as a precaution, it was explained, against breaking and entering.

A number of conferences were held today between federal and state officials, but without definite development.

Close Office at Bayonne, N. J.
Jersey City, N. J., Aug. 2.—Prosecutor Pierre F. Garvin of Hudson county today discontinued his investigation of the affairs of the Bayonne office of the Securities Exchange company of Boston, headed by Charles Ponzi. Mr. Garvin took this action on the promise

William Cross Lloyd, who now faces a prison term for his red activities.

VILLA FORGIVEN
BY MEXICO FOR HIS U. S. CRIMES

No Indication of Action at Washington.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Details received today of the "surrender" of Francisco Villa disclose that the transaction was really a purchase of the bandit's future loyalty, if not good behavior.

Villa is to be a commander of rurales, his men are to receive a year's pay, and the government also is to reimburse certain victims of his extortion. Villa is given immunity by the Mexican government from prosecution for the crimes he committed against Mexicans as well as Americans.

More Watchful Waiting.
Although scarcely a week has passed since the last few years without adding new crimes to the American case against Villa—the state department having received only today a report of the execution of an American in May—there has been made by the Wilson administration to obtain the extradition of the bandit, who was indicted in Texas for the Columbus massacre, despite the fact that the president considered this crime of such enormity in itself as to justify the Pershing punitive expedition at a cost of the lives of American soldiers and many millions of dollars.

The general understanding here is that the administration intends to continue its policy of "watchful waiting" with a view to bequeathing the entire Mexican problem to either Harding or Coolidge.

Latest Crime Against U. S.
The state department's report of the execution of another American citizen, "the surrender" of Villa at Chihuahua, state of Chihuahua, on May 24, following a business talk with Francisco Villa, the Mexican bandit chief, the state department was advised today by the American consul at Chihuahua.

Information gathered by the consul is to the effect that Perez, who had aided Villa on business matters on a number of occasions, went to Villa at Chihuahua, state of Chihuahua, on May 24, that Villa accused Perez of robbing him, and that Villa became very angry and ordered Perez taken away, and that it is believed at Chihuahua that Perez was executed the same day under Villa's orders. The governor of Chihuahua is investigating the case.

Official Report of Surrender.
The state department also issued an official report of the "surrender" of Villa which it said:

"The surrender to representatives of the Mexican city authorities is complete according to reports, said to be authentic, forwarded to the state department by the American consul at Chihuahua. Villa, according to these reports, will be given command of troops in the state of Chihuahua, will retain 200 picked men, and the remainder of his band will demobilize and merge into the regular army at their will."

"The American consul at Piedras Negras has reported that Villa was detained at the home of L. M. Lamar, an American citizen, at Sabina, and was to leave for Torreon on Saturday last. No information is given as to the cause of the delay of Villa's departure."

The American government has refused a request of Gov. Cantu of the western district of Lower California for permission to import arms and ammunition from the United States for use in repelling the reported threat of occupation by Mexican provisional forces. The request was made by a Washington representative of Gov. Cantu.

Hold Conference with Cantu.
Mexico, Lower Cal., Aug. 2.—(By the Associated Press.)—Envoys of the provisional government of Mexico held today conference today with Gov. Cantu of Lower California, in an effort to compose the differences that have caused Cantu to sever relations with the national authorities. When the conference adjourned today, the envoys declined to discuss it, beyond saying the subjects discussed would be referred to Mexico City by telegraph and a reply with further instructions would be sent.

MILITARY COURTS TO REPLACE CIVIL
IN IRISH CRISISPending Bill to Give
Army More Power.

(Chicago Tribune-New York Times Cable.)
[Copyright, 1920.]

LONDON, Tuesday, Aug. 2.—The government's "restoration of order bill" for Ireland was sent to the printers last night after its formal introduction and first reading in the house of commons.

The Daily Chronicle political correspondent says the tribunals which are to be set up in Ireland for the trial of all crimes and offenses under the defense of the realm act will be courts martial, with the corollary that in capital cases there will be power to make a modification in the court so as to bring in another element in addition to the military.

"Whether and when this power will be exercised," he adds, "presumably will be a matter of discretion with the authorities."

"The powers of the military are thus to be increased, the government having confidence in Gen. Macready. As has been foreshadowed, the chief provisions which were to have been enacted by the criminal inquiries bill are now to be embodied in this restoration of order bill."

The closure motion necessary to put the bills through in the commons on Thursday and Friday will be taken."

Fifty Ambush Five Soldiers.
DUBLIN, Aug. 2.—Details of a fight at Bruree, County Limerick, are told today from general headquarters. Fifty armed men ambushed five men and an officer, a patrol of military cyclists. One of the soldiers was seriously wounded, but his comrades were unable to assist him, so strong was the attackers' fire.

Some of the raiders used the wounded man as cover, thus shielding themselves, as the soldiers feared to hurt him.

The struggle lasted half an hour. Then the troops rescued the wounded man, taking him to a cottage, which the raiders surrounded, and into which they poured a heavy fire. As the soldiers' ammunition ran short, one of them, disguising himself as a civilian, ran for reinforcements, at the arrival of which the raiders fled.

The raiders rallied in the village and resumed firing. A schoolboy was killed accidentally.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 2.—The increase of Russian troops in Armenia from 20,000 to 50,000 last month was due to Russian uprisings against the soviets and not to plans to resume red invasion of the near east, although that probably will be carried on, according to former high officials of the Azerbaïdjan government, who arrived from the Caucasus today.

The fighting so far against the Armenians, they say, has not been official warfare, although some Russians are among the attacking troops. A large majority of the Armenians said they did not want independence, but they favor a union with Russia for political and economic reasons, being surrounded by hostile moslems on all sides except in Georgia there even being battles with small bands from there.

Steps a Revolt.
Nauri Pasha, brother of Enver Pasha, stopped a revolution against the Azerbaïdjan soviets during the fighting on the Armenian frontiers, but is organizing to counteract bolshevik propaganda.

The enemies of the Reds bitterly are waging propaganda against the bolshevik regime in Azerbaïdjan, insisting that the government there, despite Lenin's proclamation of an independent republic, is under an absolute Russian dictatorship which has supreme authority over life, death, property, ownership, and personal liberty. Also they charge the soviets looted stores and even homes for merchandise, food, money and anything else they wanted.

Killed Women, Babies.
In reprisals against the revolutionists the bolsheviks killed thousands of women and babies as well as leaders. Every opinion inclines toward the belief that bolshevik absorption of the Caucasus, and red feeling notwithstanding, eventually is certain, especially since most Russians in that territory, irrespective of political beliefs, oppose dismemberment of the old empire.

$77 Not in Wilmette

Miss Betty Shepler, 17 years old, laid 700 pennies on the bench of Justice of the Peace in Wilmette yesterday as payment of a fine and costs imposed upon her for leaving a car parked near the beach without license. The magistrate refused to accept the pennies and Miss Shepler was compelled to take up a collection of dollars, half dollars, and quarters from among ten friends who accompanied her to court.

PARK RIDGE

It's time for you to make some kind of a move. Unless you've got an income like Rockefeller, you can't make an even break here in the city, and where can you find a better place for a home than Park Ridge?

We like to meet and talk with the kind of people that are buying this property—they are the thrifty, progressive kind. Just think of this:

Our new Home Addition in Park Ridge is only 2 blocks from the Chicago & Northwestern R. Y. Depot. You are only 24 minutes' ride from the Loop; 54 trains daily; fare only 11c. Do you know you can make the trip to the Loop from Park Ridge more quickly than you can get to the Loop from 3rd St. on the surface cars?

You want to live in a nice neighborhood of first class Americans; you want to be located convenient to good schools, churches, stores, etc. You require a healthy location, of course, and picturesque surroundings. All this you can have in PARK RIDGE.

Come on—Let's look at these big Suburban Lots. Excellent elevation; low prices and easy terms; desirable building restrictions protect them.

We will show you this property at our expense; this is a part of our regular service. Better send for our beautifully illustrated Free Booklet which tells all about Park Ridge and our HOME ADDITION there. Use coupon.

CITY TAX RATE $4.02 IN 1921? $1.70 BEFORE WAR

Vast Boost Is Needed for
$10,000,000 Deficit.

BY OSCAR E. HEWITT.

The city's tax rate in 1914, when the war started, was $1.70. On the same basis they hope to make it $4.02 next year, or get the equivalent in cash. That will be an increase of 136.4 per cent. These figures relate to the city alone.

No announcement has been made of such a program. Probably none will be, because it will give landlords another excuse to shoot rents skyward again, and might also affect the popularity of the city government. Indeed, it will be surprising if denial is not made of such intention; but there are certain guide posts which vividly show the plan.

In yesterday's TRIBUNE it was indicated how the state machinery could be operated to gain a tax increase according to the desires of the city hall. If the Thompson-Lundin state is successful at the Republican primary Sept. 15. Today will be devoted to the probable size of that desire, omitting for lack of space the causes—one of which is valid—and excuses for the present financial predicament of the municipality.

1920 Deficit $5,000,000.

The recital will start with John A. Richard, chairman of the council finance committee, who is an authority on the financial affairs of the city. He estimated yesterday that the 1920 deficit of the corporate fund alone of the city will be $5,000,000, unless Ald. Cermak's revenue committee is able to increase license fees more than $800,000. He will have to hurry to do that well during the remainder of the year.

The city desires money to pay that deficit. It will also want more because the plans of expenditures is on a permanent basis. That indicates there will be another deficit of $5,000,000 next year unless there is an increase in the city's revenue. Some will contend that the estimate for next year is too high, but the tendency for years has been to boost expense rather than curtail it.

Means $10,000,000 Tax Boost.
It follows necessarily that the city hall desires a tax rate, or equivalent, which will give it $10,000,000 more than it expects this year. Perhaps it will be decided to float a bond issue to take care of one deficit, but that must be

C. H. MACDOWELL MADE KNIGHT OF CROWN BY ITALIAN GOVERNMENT

Charles H. MacDowell, president of the Armour Fertilizer Works, who served the government as a "dollar a year man" during the war, was officially notified yesterday by F. Quattrone of the Italian government commission—that he has been made a Knight of the Crown of Italy.

CHARLES H. MACDOWELL.

Mr. MacDowell worked with the Italians, both in Washington and in Paris, assisting them in economic problems. In addition to the Italian decoration, Mr. MacDowell has also received the Order of Commander, Crown of Belgium from King Albert and the French Cross of the Legion of Honor. He was a member of the United States peace commission.

approved by the voters and would be difficult if all the facts were made public.

It is by far easier and faster to get the legislature to boost the tax rate. The city's present tax rate is $2.05 on a tax valuation of one-half of the real valuation.

The tax valuation of all property within the city is $1,453,171,322. Each cent increase in tax rate, therefore, extends $145,317 in taxes. Thirty cents' increase in tax rate runs the total up to $4,359,514. Assume that tax rate increase will take care of this year's anticipated deficit. Thirty cents more will be needed to care for a like deficit next year.

Costs $4.02 on Old Basis.

That is a total of 60 cents. It runs the tax rate for the city up from $2.05 to $2.65. But the city rate is now on one-half basis, so that to make it comparable with the $1.70 in 1914, the $2.65 must be put on the one-third basis. Therefore, the $2.65 rate equals $4.02 on a one-third basis, and is directly comparable with $1.70 before the war.

But the advocates of the tax boost will claim that they will only ask for the 30 cents' increase for one year to care for this year's deficit. True, they may ask for this rate for a limited period. That has been done before. It quieted opposition.

The law is made operative for only a limited period, but before that limited period expires—in other cases—it has been extended for another period, and so on. The practice has been to make tax increases permanent. There is nothing in the operations of the city hall crowd to indicate they will relinquish any grasp they obtain on more revenue.

This anticipated effort to increase taxes comprises only the minimum desire of the city hall. It relates only to the needs of the corporate fund, although the tax rate used is the total for the municipality proper. It may come to the surface that the city hall wants still more income. But that is another story.

Also let it be remembered that an increase in tax rate does not represent the total increase in taxes upon the property owner. His taxes also go up as the tax valuation on his property is increased. The 136.4 per cent relates exclusively to tax rates.

Notice of Price Advance on FEDERAL Electric Washers

(Present price—while they last!)

CHICAGO HOUSEWIVES have purchased to date more than 20,000 FEDERAL Electric Washers.

It is conservatively estimated that several thousand more Chicago people are going to buy FEDERALS in the near future.

In justice to these prospective purchasers, we beg to announce that after our present stock of FEDERAL Electric Washers is sold, it will be necessary for us to advance the selling price of the machine very appreciably.

All of the parts which enter into the manufacture of the FEDERAL have averaged 25% increase in cost during the last six months.

BUT—and this is your opportunity—we will offer ALL FEDERALS NOW IN OUR WAREHOUSES AT PRESENT PRICES.

This means that you can purchase your FEDERAL at the old price if you act immediately. Thus you will save the advance. However, you must bear this point in mind—our stock is limited—quick action is necessary on your part.

The FEDERAL has always been a quality machine—built for permanence and satisfaction. Its quality will be maintained, even though all material used in its making is constantly advancing.

ACT NOW, before our present limited stock is exhausted—for the price will positively be advanced.

Mercer enclosed cars for all around use

ALL the world knows Mercer's reputation on the open road.

Only Mercer owners realize its exceptional merits for city use.

Mercer enclosed cars have the combination of charming lines and comfort which is only possible when the body designer has a low chassis and an ample wheel base to build on.

Their low centre of gravity is also a powerful element of safety; likewise the unusual range of driver's vision permitted by their windshield and forward window design, and the superb brake action which assures against traffic collisions in the tight places.

Their windows lower out of sight whenever fresh air is in demand.

They are rarely economical among cars of first quality.

Hare's Motors engineers design their products for every condition of use. All around excellence is their only standard.

This Disease Can Be Driven Out

The extinction of syphilis from American life has been the object of concrete fulfillment than is the case with any other of the four great modern plagues.

Tuberculosis, while a disease of known cause, lacks the means for such effective treatment and control of contagion as are available in syphilis. Cancer is still shrouded in obscurity—of unknown cause, of terrific fatality, definitely remedial only in its earliest stages, little understood as to its prevention.

Gonorrhea, which is preventable, but with the long periods of uncontrolled infectiousness and the long train of complications following upon a neglect which the disease itself encourages is every possible way, lacks also the striking, effective, specific cure.

Syphilis alone of the four is at our mercy. There is a method of prevention, the efficiency of which is very high; there are methods of treatment which bid fair to cure nearly every case if taken in time; there are methods of recognition in the form of blood and other tests which have some of the smallest margins of error in medicine; there is a control of contagiousness which is more absolute, immediate and effective than the most rigorous quarantine—all these point to the possibilities of extinction, the realization of which is but a matter of time.

The public must face the facts—for nothing stands out more clearly than the fact that our refusal to face these facts—not our inability to control the disease—is responsible for the present situation.

Inexpensive, abundant, effective early treatment and preventive measures will, from the medical side, enable us to hold the situation in the hollow of our hand. It is also essential that the medical solution of this problem be touched with idealism and inspired by great principles such as characterized the formation of the Public Health Institute, Inc., by big, public-spirited business men of Chicago.

This institution invites inquiry from all those suffering with syphilis or gonorrhea. It procures its patients with modern medical treatment reinforced by proper laboratory service—all for a cost well within the reach of everyone.

ROUMANIA CALLS ARMY?

BY GEORGE SELDES.

BERLIN, Aug. 2.—It is reported on good authority that the Roumanian mobilization against Russia which was threatened today in the ultimatum to the Reds, actually is well under way. The Roumans crossed into east Bessarabia, which was Russian territory, but was given to Roumania at the Versailles conference without consulting Russia. Belgrade reports thousands of Roumanian deserters have been interned after they fled upon being called to the colors for war on Russia.

ULTIMATUM TO RUSSIA

VIENNA, Aug. 2.—[By the Associated Press.]—Roumania has served an ultimatum on soviet Russia, giving the soviets three days to withdraw their troops from Roumanian territory, according to a Belgrade dispatch received today.

In the event of Russia's failure to comply, it is added, Roumania will declare a general mobilization.

It was announced in London last May that Russia had agreed to a settlement of the Bessarabian question, without the approval of the allies, in accordance with the Roumanian government's wishes, but this never seemed to have resulted satisfactorily for Roumania.

Recently, in addition to soviet occupation of the Odessa district after the defeat of Denikine, the operations of the bolsheviks against the Ukrainians and Poles in Podolia, have brought the soviet forces close to Roumanian territory proper, although no reports of an actual crossing of the main Roumanian frontier have been received.

PARIS, Aug. 2.—The allied foreign offices have been informed by their agents that the bolshevik cavalry is well mounted, well equipped, and disciplined, but the Red infantry is below standard and artillery is scarce. The latest Red communique announces the taking of Bialystok and Brushlany, important railway junctions.

According to reports from Switzerland the allied premiers will meet the German chancellor at an Alpine summer resort in order to discuss the Polish situation. It is recalled that at first only Prime Minister Lloyd George's trip to Lucerne was spoken of, but later reports announced Premier Goltz was coming from Rome to meet Mr. Lloyd George and Premier Millerand. The foreign office denies Mr. Millerand is going, but the maneuvers toward a meeting indicate it may take place and be a second Spa.

RUSS MISSION IN LONDON

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
[By Special Cable.]

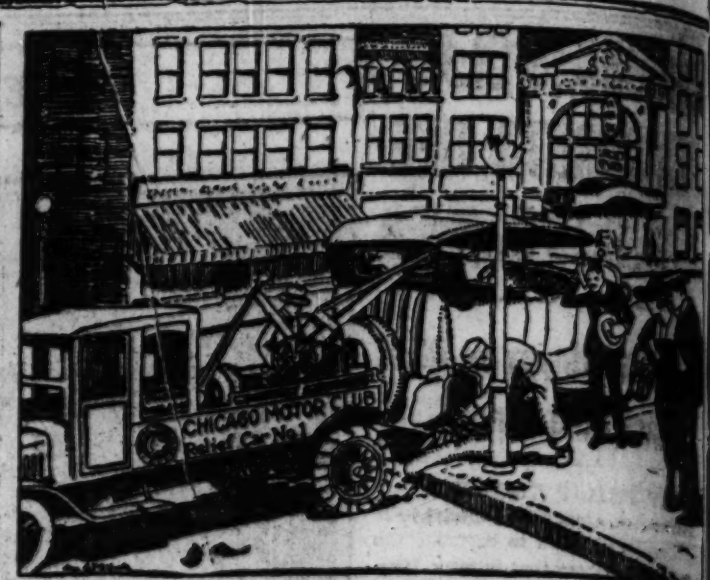

LONDON, Aug. 2.—No reply has yet been received from Moscow to the British note asking participation in a London conference. The Kamenev-Krasin trade mission has arrived in London, but there is no interview with the government pending a reply from Moscow. The mission was in a very bad temper when I called at its headquarters, 128 Bond Street, this afternoon. I was met by a Jewish commissary, who said:

"Nothing doing. See Sir Basil Thompson. He speaks for us." Thompson is chief of the special branch of Scotland Yard (political secret service). The British government suspects the good faith of Moscow in delaying its answer while carrying on an offensive against the Poles.

'UNDERGROUND SYSTEM' OF JAPS OUTWITS U. S.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 2.—Definite location of the "underground system" on the Pacific coast by which "thousands of Japanese are smuggled into the United States yearly" was announced here today by Congressman Albert Johnson, chairman of the house subcommittee on immigration and naturalization, which reassembled here to investigate Japanese activities in the northwest.

"Until we come to the northwest we had only an indefinite idea of the operations by which Japanese are being brought surreptitiously into the United States," said Chairman Johnson. "Now we have the key, so to speak. We have found that the Japanese underground system begins at Yokohama. From thence it leads to Honolulu and extends across the Pacific to Guaymas, on the Gulf of California. Here, either by water or across the border, the Japanese invaders are smuggled into the United States."

GIRL WHO SAW SAM LOFTIS DIE WINS FREEDOM

Shayne Gives Vivid
Story of Tragedy.

"She down then, Ruth," came the reply. "Then Wexler said: 'She has some jewelry—I don't know whose it is.' The mother found it."

"As soon as possible we took her to the Loftis home," Detective Sergeant Norton detailed all his work of Friday night. He told the story of the chase through all the west side dives. He said the man who was with Miss Woods in the cab—the man who, Ruth said, Wexler told her was his brother—had been identified. He would be picked up, Norton said, as soon as possible.

"He testified he believed Miss Woods had told the truth about the night's affair. And Shayne, too, had not lied so far as Norton knew."

"Shayne Anxious to Tell All." "You are excused. Call Shayne," the coroner snapped.

"Is Shayne walked to the stand, Ruth looked against her uncle's shoulders. His eyes were closed. She seemed in silent prayer. The white veil in her hands was bunched in one small ball. And constantly she twisted it."

"I don't care for myself," she whispered. "But Roy—"

"You do not need to testify," her faced was being told. "For anything you say may later be used against you in a criminal proceeding."

"I want to tell it all—all of it, and get it all cleared up," was his reply.

"Get Phone Call from Girl." "I had known Loftis fifteen years, just casually," he continued. "I met him twice in the last two weeks—the first time Sunday night, the last time just before he died. I have known him ten years or more; she used to work for me."

"I was at Ruth's home when she called. I was to take her bathing on that day. She talked to me a moment. 'I am at Loftis'; come at once," she said. I went."

"When I got there the door swung open. Sam stood there. I went in. On my right was Ruth. I asked her how she was."

"Loftis Has Abused Me." "He said: 'All right. But Loftis has abused me. Dreadfully! Terribly.' I turned around."

"I saw Sam, in pajamas, weaving on his feet. He wore a silly grin; his arms were waving. 'Come have a drink! Let's have a party!' he said to me. I read there wondering what to do. Jerry? Of course I was. But one can't hit a drunken man, you know. That's what it hurts the most."

"I looked at him. He backed away, still teetering. A moment later he had fallen. He struck the door—I saw him and I heard him crash against it. He landed away and hit a nearby settee. He fell then on the floor all doubled up. I grabbed his left foot and dragged him to the center of the room."

"I tried in every way to bring him to. I slapped his face and rubbed his hands. I got a wet towel and I beat him on the chest. He did not answer—just gasped once."

"I told Ruth to get out—to go on home. I didn't want her there—I said I would have to force her out. And then I got a doctor. He told me Sam was dead. I called the coroner and notified the police."

"The questions then flew quick and fast. Ruth still leaned forward. 'Why ask him all those things?' she moaned."

"The jury asked to see the room where"

Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin sued for divorce in Los Angeles yesterday. She charges her husband, Charlie Chaplin, movie comedian, with cruelty. Pending the decision of her suit, she asks an injunction to prevent his selling pictures, valued at $750,000.

Loftis fell. They wanted to get things straight in their minds, they said. So Hoffman, Garrity, Shayne, attorneys, and the jury went over there."

"While they were gone the girl was plainly worried. 'Why, I'd just die if they'd come back and say they'd tripped him up on some fool question,' she said once. Another time, 'How long they're staying?' And still again: 'What time is it? They said they would return in half an hour!'"

"When Shayne came back, his face unmoved, she sighed relief. The jury, too, looked satisfied. So did the coroner. They kept him on the stand a moment more and then excused him. They called Ruth's mother."

"Grants Freedom to Girl." "There was no other man in Ruth's life but Roy Shayne," she said.

Ruth Woods' attorney asked her freedom for the night. He said he'd be her surety for the night. The officials conferred and she was released."

"Only Hates Hassel Woman." Ruth talked last night before retiring. It was her first free statement to the public."

"I'm glad they didn't make me testify today," she said. "For I'm so tired. And I thank them all, for I am grateful. They have been good to me—the coroner and police. The Hassel woman is the only one I hate."

"She says it's murder. Just jealousy, and the fact that Loftis didn't leave a will that she might share his fortune."

"Just tell the public that I'm going to sleep tonight with a clear conscience, for I've done no wrong. That's all."

The funeral of Mr. Loftis will be held this morning at the home. The body will be shipped to Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hassel and the dead man's brother will go with it."

Miss Woods will be resumed also this morning, when Miss Woods will be asked to testify."

The Loftis fortune was not as large as was reported. It was said last night. According to Attorney Harris Williams, it will not range over $250,000. Having no resident heirs, letters of administration for the estate of Loftis were issued yesterday to Gordon A. Ramsay, public administrator. Joseph Loftis of Omaha, Neb., and Clifford Loftis of Bakersfield, Cal., brothers of the deceased, are the heirs at law."

PASSENGER RATE BOOSTS AUG. 20, FREIGHT AUG. 25

Fight to Be Made on Illinois Law.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—Special.—Interstate passenger rate increases will be made effective Aug. 20 and those on freight rates on Aug. 25. This was announced tonight by Alfred P. Thom, general counsel of the Association of Railway Executives, following a meeting of its rate committee.

The plan is contingent upon the completion of the new tariff in time to file them five days in advance of these dates.

Traffic representatives of the railroads who were in conference included Edward Chambers of Chicago, vice president of the Santa Fe, representing the western roads; G. H. Ingalls, vice president of the New York Central, representing eastern carriers; and Benjamin Campbell, vice president of the New Haven, chairman of the rate committee.

Total Gain $1,580,000,000. A preliminary estimate of the amount of additional revenue to be derived from the freight and passenger rate increases placed the total at $1,580,000,000. This is within $45,000,000 of the amount sought by the roads. Of the total $583,000,000 will come from passenger traffic and nearly $1,000,000,000 from freight traffic. It was estimated the average freight rate increase would be 35 1/2 per cent. This estimate was made by the bureau of railway economics maintained by the railroads.

These figures include intrastate as well as interstate rate increases. Mr. Thom said early action would be sought in the proceedings involving intrastate increases before state commissions. Applications covering the same percentages of increase as were sought in the original case before the interstate commerce commission were filed with the state commissions some time ago. Supplemental increases to cover the wage advance will be filed at once.

May Overturn Law. In the case of Illinois, where a 2 cent fare law is still on the statute books, the railroads are prepared to use every means to overturn it and keep intrastate passenger rates up at the 3 cents a mile level where they are now under the wartime control, which expires Sept. 1.

If the Illinois commission holds that it is powerless to fix intrastate rates at 3 cents a mile under the state law the railroads plan to ask the interstate commerce commission to step in and take this action. This would be by authority of the section of the transportation act authorizing the commission to fix intrastate rates which are discriminatory with respect to interstate rates.

That the state commissioners throughout the country will be inclined to view the applications for increases in intrastate rates favorably is believed in view of the recommendation of the three state commissioners who sat with the interstate commerce commission throughout the hearings.

CHARGES PLOT TO KEEP PRICES UP ON CLOTHING

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—Howard E. Figg, special assistant to the attorney general in the enforcement of the Lever law against profiteering, charged today that manufacturers and jobbers of wearing apparel were attempting through carefully prepared propaganda "to stampede retailers and the public into a renewed fictitious demand" for clothing and thereby force prices higher.

"The department of justice," said Mr. Figg, "is fully advised of the several phases of this carefully planned campaign and it only remains to fix personal responsibility before applying the criminal provisions of the Lever law."

In a formal statement, Mr. Fig charged that the manufacturers and jobbers were circulating propaganda similar to that used to mislead the public during the recent speculative conditions.

MANDEL BROTHERS launch anew "the" clothing event of midsummer:

August sale of men's overcoats

—famous annual event—2,089 coats
bought at savings up to 50 per cent

You are acquainted, of course, with the fact that curtailment of bank credits some months ago obliged clothing manufacturers to dispose of garments greatly below "top prices."

We bought heavily, after the market "broke," at concessions ranging to 50 per cent. In consequence, we offer you now the pick of 2,089 overcoats—vastly more than in any prior August—at prices very substantially less than any you might expect to pay for coats so excellent.

225 coats at 36.50	59 coats at 53.50	172 coats at 65.00
127 coats at 40.00	231 coats at 55.00	78 coats at 68.00
85 coats at 45.00	92 coats at 58.00	27 coats at 72.50
295 coats at 47.50	236 coats at 60.00	142 coats at 75.00
187 coats at 50.00	74 coats at 63.50	59 coats at 85.00

All fur lined and fur collared overcoats included—at $65 to $325

You have read of the unusual economic conditions that resulted recently in the closing of the woolen mills, and will realize that scarcer wools mean higher clothing prices in the fall than any hitherto experienced.

When these overcoats are sold, we shall be unable to secure others like them to sell anywhere near as low

To reap this August sale's full benefit, you will be well advised to choose at once—anticipating both fall and winter needs—and securing first choice of undepleted lots. All preparations have been made to give you prompt, efficient service.

Boys' overcoats and mackinaws are included in this sale at proportionate savings.

QUEENSBERRY IX., ROVING MARQUIS, DIES IN AFRICA

Once on Tribune; Vague
Hint of Crime.

JOHANNESBURG, Union of South Africa, Aug. 1.—Percy Sholto Douglas, sixth marquis of Queensberry, is dead here.

Accuse Marquis' Associates.
LONDON, Aug. 2.—According to a dispatch from Johannesburg, shortly after the death of the marquis of Queensberry, which has been ascribed to pneumonia, an affidavit was filed making certain allegations against some of the persons with whom the marquis was closely connected while in South Africa.

The affidavit is not regarded seriously by the criminal investigation department, but its existence tends to dispose of the body.

The marquis' heir, Francis Archibald Robert, Viscount Drumlanrig, and his wife, who was the actress, Irene Richards, are touring South America.

The late marquis had a varied and picturesque career, which carried him to most of the world in search of wealth. During most of his life he was poor in money, although rich in family dignity and honors.

A Marquis of All Trades.
At one time or another he was a midshipman in the navy, a cowboy, and a journalist in America, a gold miner in Australia, and a plantation foreman in Guyana. He made money in the Australian mines, but eventually lost it on the stock exchange here, although several times he amassed considerable riches.

ON TRIBUNE IN 1912.
The marquis of Queensberry, for four months in 1912, was employed as a sports writer by THE TRIBUNE. Reportorial work, however, was not to his liking. He abrogated a year's contract to go to Australia. He made many friends here. Modest and unassuming, he never boasted of his titled position.

His father, the eighth Marquis of Queensberry, founded the code of rules which converted fisticuffs into the polite art of boxing and now governs all sports contests.

AGING CRIME.
—Editor of The Tribune was surprised at any verdict in the case and I am quite sure it is right. Did he not read of the many, petty thefts to murder's get out so easy does time? Subscribers.

HARDING.
—Editor of The Tribune to be congratulated the entire acceptance Harding. It is indeed a superlative coincidence, not contain egotism, narrow partisan stunts forth the platform upon. We note the senator deals with a day. Not with the union or the radicalism with the deep understanding scholar who directs for which our forth their blood rooms of an idealist. Since does not adoration or separation that confront the undimmed mind will force the national questions by lions of international such a strong plan at warfare will be ability. These are the things stand upon. But not willing to violate and doctrines that built upon, or neither necessary to sacrifice the loathsome altar of by far not least, order of the creed that mistic questions and others.

NEW GRAND JURY TO INVESTIGATE COAL PRICING

Judge Crowe Orders
War on Profiteers.

Plans for a thorough investigation of the coal situation here with a view to bringing indictments against any persons, firms, or corporations found in criminal conspiracy to profiteer on coal, will be considered today by the August grand jury.

The action of the jurors will be in answer to instructions given them yesterday by Chief Justice Robert E. Crowe of the Criminal court, who charged them with the task of rooting out alleged manipulators of coal prices in Chicago and Cook county.

Jury Instructed to Act.
"A coal famine threatens Chicago, and as the winter approaches great hardships and suffering, if not many deaths, may result," said Judge Crowe.

"I strongly urge that you conduct a rigid investigation for the purpose of determining whether any persons, firms, or corporations in Cook county are engaged in a criminal conspiracy to bring about this coal shortage for the purpose of manipulating the price of this most essential commodity."

More than 500 men were thrown out of employment yesterday by the shortage of coal in the plant of the Republic Iron and Steel company's plant in South Chicago. According to estimates, 3,000 are now idle due to the lack of coal in the South Chicago industries.

Miners Return to Work.
Seventy-five per cent of the coal miners will be back to their jobs today, according to E. C. Searles, president of the Illinois Mine Operators' association.

According to telegrams received yesterday at Springfield by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois unions, local organizations all over the state are returning to work in compliance with his request, pending negotiations. A similar statement was made by John L. Lewis, national president of the miners' union, according to dispatches from Indianapolis.

PENALTY FOR DELAY.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Further steps to relieve the coal situation were taken today by the interstate commerce commission. It forbade more than one reconignment and imposed a charge of $2 to $5 a car for making that.

The commission also announced that until Jan. 1, 1921, emergency demurrage charges of $10 a day per car would be effective on coal, coke, and lumber. The railroads are authorized to file new tariffs establishing these reconigning and demurrage rules, effective upon five days' notice.

Mines Are Reopening.
Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 2.—Bituminous coal mines in Indiana and Illinois, closed last week because of a strike of day men, were being reopened today, according to a statement issued from headquarters of the United Mine Workers of America.

The Semi-Annual Sale of Furniture

Brings a Tremendous Possibility of Savings

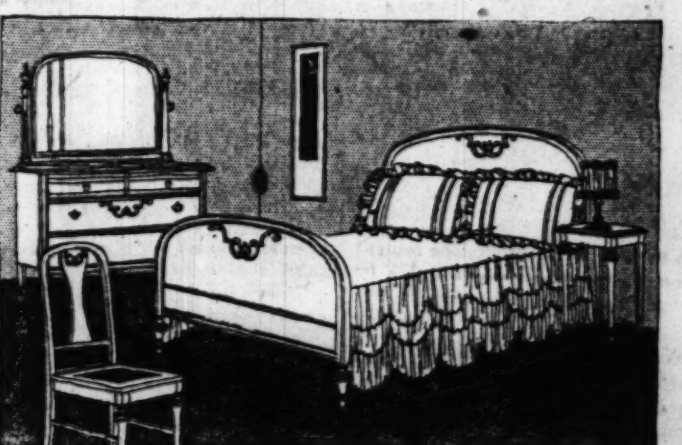

EVERY piece of Furniture in the Eighth Floor stocks—Bedroom, Living Room, Dining Room, and Summer Furniture—and every piece in the decorated, imported, and antique stocks on the Fifth Floor is reduced.

Thus every room in the home could be refitted with Furniture in this Sale, with considerable savings on every piece—and the great varieties in price, size, design, and purpose to be found in the Furniture Section indicates that practically any taste can be satisfied.

For the Bedroom—

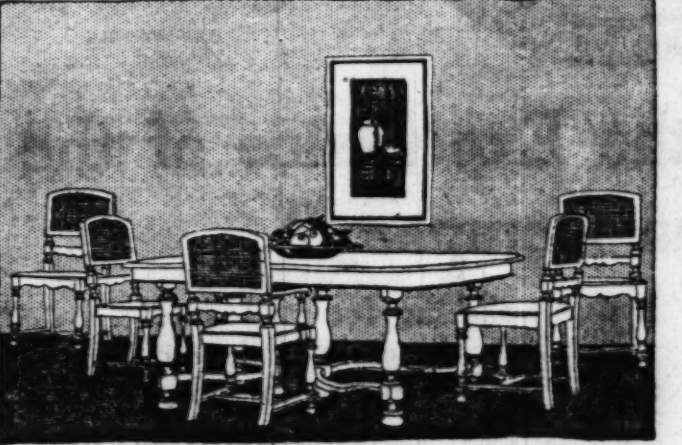

A Sheraton Bedroom Suite, made of a splendid selection of walnut, has burl panels, which furnish an interesting variation. This very desirable Suite consists of Twin Beds, Dresser, Dressing Table, Chiffonier, Chair, Bench, Night Stand and Hanging Mirror, and is attractively priced at $1,000.

Another Bedroom Suite of Convincing Beauty

MAHOGANY, with the stamp of good designing and genuine craftsmanship in each piece. The lines are reminiscent of Queen Anne tendencies, as are the simple decorative motifs.

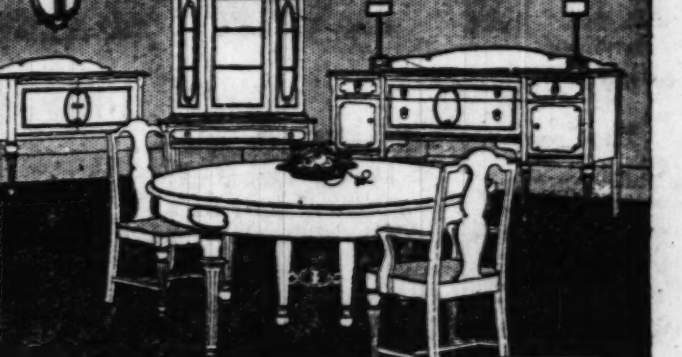

There are three pieces sketched—Bed, full size, $85; Dresser, $150; and Toilet Table, $195. Chiffonier is $105; Night Table, $20; Chair or Rocker, $23.50; Bench, $20.

A Dining Set of Unusual Excellence

THE round-end oblong Table is one that has found favor recently, and its design is one which lends new beauty to the well-selected walnut of which it is made. With five Chairs and one Armchair (the Table extends to 8 feet), the set is $295. The chair seats are blue haircloth.

The same Set with a 54-inch Round Table, $290.

Price as Well as Beauty Distinguishes This Suite

IT is a modified Georgian design, made of well-selected mahogany of exceptional finish. The cabinet work is worthy of remark and the proportions of the pieces are true and well adapted to modern homes.

The prices are very special for furniture of this character. Table, 54-in. top, 8-ft. extension, two apron leaves, $140. Side Chair, $31.50 each. Armchair, $37.50. Buffet, $200. China Cabinet, $165. Serving Table, $75.

Eighth Floor.

An Attractive Suite for a Comfortable Room

HERE is a deep, luxurious, velour Sofa with Chair to match in either a deep blue or rich, soft wistaria. The very attractive mahogany Table has five drawers conveniently arranged, is 28 inches wide and 62 inches long, an ideal Table for the living room.

Sofa, $195. Chair, $95. Table, $135.

The August Sale of Frames and Framing

THE customary lowered prices for practically all work done by the Picture Workroom this month will prove an opportunity this year as usual.

In addition there have been arranged several exceptionally good values in Frames of standard size, which will prove of interest.

Three of these are illustrated—they are Cheval Frames, well made of very good materials, and finished in excellent taste. They are ornamented and hand-carved. Roman gold powder and metal leaf finishes are available, and the prices for the Frames shown are $3.75 and $5.

It is suggested that orders for Framing, Renovating or Repairing Pictures, Frames or Paintings, and other work done at lowered prices be placed early in the month.

Some New Dining Sets

So many people prefer, in these days of built-in furniture, to buy only Tables and Chairs that the following Table and Chair Sets have been specially arranged:

Adam Set in brown mahogany, with oblong table, 48x60 in., 8-ft. extension, Chair seats covered in haircloth; Table, 5 side Chairs, Armchair, $335.

CAR SHORTAGE CAUSES GLOOM IN BREAD BELT

South Dakota Farmers
Can't Market Grain.

BY ARTHUR M. EVANS.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—A scarcity of cars and abundance of labor is the common story in this part of the bread basket belt. Much of the 1919 crop is still stored in country elevators and on the farms, and the movement to market seems to be blocked even perhaps more than in Kansas, where it is only one-third of normal for this time of year, according to the state estimates. The cars are simply not at the loading places and the farmers are toiling up their arms over the transportation prospects when thrashing reaches its crest. Some are stacking their cut. Others talk of switching from wheat to corn next season.

As to the much vaunted labor scarcity which threw a scare into the east a few weeks ago at the idea the farmer might not be able to garner his grain, it simply does not exist in these parts of South Dakota. The state each year is depending less and less upon migratory labor to help carry the peak loads. More machinery, more tractor power, closer adaptation of the planting to the ability of the farmer-family unit to do the harvesting, extra work by the agriculturists—all these factors have cut down the seasonal demand for floating workers.

This year many more birds of pas-

ILLINOIS TOWN AT HEAD OF CLASS IN POPULATION BEE

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—The 1920 population, with the exception of one enumeration district not returned by the supervisor, is 2,892,601, the census bureau announced today. Ten years ago the population was 2,609,121. The rate of growth for the ten years was 10.9 per cent, the smallest in the history of the state.

Wood River, in Madison county, Ill., is given a population of 3,476, an increase of 4,028.1 per cent. That is the highest rate of growth shown by any place in the United States thus far in the fourteenth census.

Wood River's 1910 population was 84. Part of the town's large increase was due to the annexation of Bonbow City, which had a population of 205, and East Wood River, which had 400 people ten years ago.

sage alighted in the harvest fields than were needed. Many were unable to get jobs. Sioux City last Saturday night was filled with workers on their way back east. From both farmers and harvest hands one hears loud complaints against private employment agencies which exaggerated conditions. Everywhere one hears comment upon the high grade of the labor which appeared this year. In other years many tough customers were in the "floating army." Murders were frequent in the fields. The old condition has vanished. The disturbers are gone. A city editor in an Iowa town grew pensive the other night as he described things. "We haven't had a good murder story all season. In other years a harvest used to be good for five or six swell yarns."

Many of the former Reds have lost their redness and have faded to a peachblow pink, or else they have stuck to the cities instead of taking to the fields this year.

The I. W. W. headquarters at Sioux City Saturday night was almost deserted, where in former years it used to be crowded.

The crops are still staggering the natives. The drive from Sioux City to Sioux Falls Sunday revealed the ridges loaded with as fine corn as the old timers had ever seen.

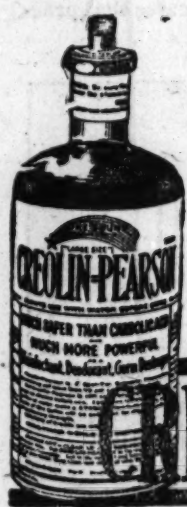

Forty bushels of wheat to the acre is reported not unusual. The inroads on the old cattle ranges have carried wheat up to the fringe of the bad lands.

The cities are thriving. Most of them have been to the beauty parlors within the last five or ten years. Paved streets, boulevard lamp clusters, new hotels, bigger stores, expensive garages, ubiquitous filling stations, sometimes three to a crossroad; lines of high power cars streaming along the highways, everybody working, everybody prosperous—that is this section of the old Indian country.

PRICE OF BEEF LOWER IN JULY, PACKERS SAY

Washington, D. C., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—Wholesale meat prices declined in July, according to the Institute of American Packers. They claim a drop of 10 to 15 per cent on beef in the east from June 24 to July 24.

"An anomaly of the recent situation was the tendency of the public to maintain a high demand for the very highest grades, which were most expensive," the statement says, adding: "Some packers who lost money on their beef operations during much of 1920 report that it is still impossible to show satisfactory results on current beef operations on account of declining prices for hides and byproducts."

Goodrich Rubber Company, Kansas City, Mo., says: "With us speed is the thing. To secure it, we installed 23 Dictaphones and centralized our typing department. The result has been a decided increase in speed and a material increase in volume of correspondence handled daily."

Haywood Bros. & Wakefield Co., New York, N. Y. E. Stauffer, Mgr., says: "The 12 Dictaphones used in our various departments measure up to all our requirements for speed, accuracy, and efficiency. Our dictation is never held up. This makes for large savings in time and expense."

The Creamery Package Mfg. Company, Chicago, Ill. P. R. Durdy, Comptroller, says: "The 22 Dictaphones, used in all our departments, have proved to be time-and-money savers in this office. They certainly save the time of both operator and dictator."

American National Bank, San Francisco, California. I. H. Sanborn, Vice-President, says: "Although we have been using The Dictaphone for a little more than a year, the results have proved to us that The Dictaphone facilitates our work and speeds up letter production without adding to our cost."

"Niceties small, the men pass by — the women love 'em all!"
—The Irish say

A MAN pays great attention to mechanical features when selecting a car. A woman knows it is important to be equally exacting as to its fittings. This probably explains why so many women — natural, expert judges of fabric, quality and distinction — will insist upon having Shellen Looms Upholstery in the family car.

U. S. GOLF STARS PLAY TOMORROW IN WESTERN OPEN

BY JOE DAVIS.

Eighty-eight players, seven of whom are amateurs, are listed to start in the western open championship at Olympia Fields tomorrow. It is a remarkably strong field, including the leading stars of the middle west, ten eastern players of note and six from southern cities.

Mike Brady, Apollo and in 1917 at Chicago, and Walter Hagen, National and Metropolitan champion, are the only previous winners of the title. Hagen won at Milwaukee in 1916.

Record of Players.
Among those who have finished close to the top in recent years are George Sargent, former national open champion, who finished third in 1915, and tied with Jack Hutchinson for second place the following year. Hutchinson was third in 1917 and third last year. Mike Brady of Detroit was second at Memphis in 1913, and tied for fourth place with Hagen at Glen Oak in 1915. Fred McLeod of Washington, Louis Teller of Boston, Wilfrid Reid of Wilmington, Del., and Emil Loeffler and Charley Rowe of Pittsburgh, are among the strongest of the eastern players, while J. Douglas Edgar and Willie Ogg of Atlanta, and Harry Hampton of Richmond, Va., are the leaders of the southern contingent.

Entries from Chicago.
Rob Macdonald, Jack Hutchinson, Eddie Loos, Lloyd Gulickson, Lawrence Ayton, and Charley Mayo will bear the burden of the Chicago clubs. Ayton will be the first appearance of Ayton in a big tournament in this country and both are picked to finish well up.

The championship will be played over No. 1 and No. 2 courses. The first named pair will start over No. 1 course and the second pair will start at the same time over No. 2 course. The order will be reversed in the afternoon.

Pairings for Tomorrow.
Following are pairings: 9:30—Howard Sargent, Fred Laka, and Tom Kennet, Olympia Fields. 9:30—John Bird, South Shore, and Gunnar Nelson, Lafayette. 9:30—Bob Peables, Beloit, and Jack Martin, Rockford. 9:30—Marshall Strickland, Peru, Ind., and George Hansen, Milwaukee. 9:30—W. Early Birds Try Course.
Among the players who yesterday were Jack Hutchinson, Mike Brady, Harry Hampton, Fred McLeod, Walter Nelson, Charles Mayo, George Sargent, Louis Teller, Lawrence Ayton, Lloyd Gulickson, Alce Cunningham, Wilfrid Reid, Scottie Robson, Bob Peables, Charley Rowe, and Ed Towns.

Hutchinson, Brady, Hampton, and McLeod played over the No. 1 course, Jack and McLeod each getting 78 and Brady 79.

Members of the tent colony at Olympia have volunteered to let the contestants have the use of their tents during the tournament, which will save the players from making the trip to town at night.

U. S.-BRITISH GOLF MATCH SUNDAY
Toledo, O., Aug. 2.—The international team match as a prelude to the national open golf tournament to be played over the Inverness course next week, will be staged Sunday.

The tournament proper is scheduled for Aug. 10-13. In the team match, which probably will be a contest of the British experts against the American professionals, Harry Vardon and Ted Ray, will make up half the English team. Walter Hagen and James Barnes will head the American contingent. Partners have not yet been picked.

GASOLINE ALLEY—LINE FORMS ON THE LEFT.

Woods and Waters by LARRY ST. JOHN

VOX POP ON BIRDS.

WILMETTE, Ill.—(To the Editor.)—I am one of those who think the browned grackle a harmful bird, although I do not condemn him for his bad habits.

It is said that birds have an idea of right and wrong. As an illustration, grackles frequently chase robins from the bird bath in my yard, but in a maple pair of robins nested, and let a grackle try to rob the nest and the robins would attack him furiously and drive him away. The grackle would never submit to such outrageous treatment at the bath because he is under ordinary circumstances master of the robin.

The male robin of the pair became quite tame under my friendly aid, and while I spaded in the garden he often came within reach. Once I spread a delicious bunch of white grubs on the palm of my hand and with outstretched arm laid on the ground I offered them to him. After much cooing of the head he accepted—and I felt like a conquering hero.

I made an acceptable wren house of a cocooned shell, and, suspended by means of a wire from a tree, it makes a pleasing sight. It seems to me that bluebirds are more numerous this year than last or year before last. I hope so. Yours truly, GEORGE CHOCOS.

Editor's note: Those of us who think that bluebirds are not as numerous as usual this year are outnumbered five to one by those who think otherwise. We are glad of it. We cannot spare a single bluebird, as they are the dearest and sweetest tempered of all our birds.

U. S. PISTOL AND RIFLE TEAMS ARE VICTORS IN OLYMPIC EVENTS

BEVERLOO, Belgium, Aug. 2.—Unofficial results of pistol and small bore rifle events of the Olympic shooting contests indicate another triumph for the United States, which is believed to have gained first places for individuals and teams in both events.

A surprise was the fine showing of the Brazilians in the pistol match. They apparently gained second place for the team shoot, and Afranio Costa's individual score of 489 is second only to that of K. T. Frederick, an American civilian, whose remarkable 496 gave him first place.

DEMPSEY-MISKE FIGHT HITCH IS ALL CLEARED UP

Phil Campbell, business manager for the Benton Harbor Boxing club, announced over the long distance phone from the Michigan resort last night that all hitches had been removed, and that Heavyweight Champion Jack Dempsey would positively fight Billy Miske at St. Paul on Labor day.

Campbell received a telegram from Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons, who is in New York, stating that a conference with Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, had resulted in Dempsey's signature being signed to the articles of agreement.

Dempsey goes to Olympic.
Toronto, Ont., Aug. 2.—Robert Dibble of the Don Rowing club, who was defeated recently at the Pennsylvania regatta, will represent Canada in the Olympic rowing events.

By Mae Tinee.
I don't BELIEVE it! Before TELLING you WHAT I don't believe, though, let it be said that in this EXTRAVA-GANTZA Mae Murray does BETTER WORK than for a month OF SUNDAYS. Save for a brief Spell of HYSTERIA on a lawn AT MIDNIGHT, RAINSTORM, she is really Quite APPEALING and CONVINCING Throughout the FILM. ALSO, David Powell is more the BELOVED HERO this time than for quite AWHILE. And the picture is EXCELLENTLY cast and photographed.

BUT— I DON'T BELIEVE English noblemen BREAK THEIR NECKS TO WIN AN AMERICAN girl (for American girls if you're fussy). And then spend their TIME or MOST of it Humiliating the lady (or ladies), OBJECT being to drive the dear (or dears) to commit INDISCRETIONS that may prove GROUNDS For divorce. Of course if they DO NOTHING in the picture is IMPROBABLE. But it seems PECULIAR, doesn't it, OR, As the Pennsylvan Dutch would SAY—"AINT'."

WEBWORM
BY FRANK RIDGWAY.
NEW feeding grounds are being provided for the garden webworm wherever alfalfa fields are started. The webworm is moving from the garden and weed fields to the alfalfa patch, where it skeletonizes the plants in a short time. In some fields it has done considerable damage to the second crop of alfalfa this summer, and slight injury to corn and other crops has been noticed.

The pigweed furnishes the favorite food for this pest, but during the last few weeks the worms have been so numerous in many places they have destroyed all of the weeds and have moved over into the alfalfa fields. Serious damage is often done alfalfa plants before the pest is noticed. The worms build their web around the plants and strip the leaves and stems from the stalk. When the worms are abundant, nothing is left of the plant, but the coarse stems and the skeleton of the leaves, completely destroying the most valuable part of the plant.

In the Kansas alfalfa fields farmers have been able to control the webworm by cutting the crop and removing it as soon as the worm appears. In harvesting the worms are knocking from the plants and they hide in the leafy rubbish on the ground. Then a brush drag is used immediately after the hay is raked off the ground, and many of the worms are crushed. The harrow is sometimes used instead of the brush drag, but it is not so effective.

The brush drag is made by nailing several tough tree branches to a pole twelve or fourteen feet long. About midway of the brush a heavy tire is fastened to hold the drag close to the ground. Of course, the raking and handling of the hay will kill many of the worms. Birds pick up thousands of worms after the crop has been removed.

NAMED AFTER VEGETABLES
Ancient Rome honored vegetables so highly that it named some of its greatest families after them. Fabius was but General Bean; Cicero was Vice-Chancellor Pear; and the house of Lentulus took its appellation from the slow-growing Lentil.

Those who have enjoyed the succulent green vegetables served at CHILD'S will agree that the honor was well deserved.

CHILD'S Vegetable Dinner, freshly cooked and temptingly plated, is the feature of the pictures of the table.

FASHION'S BLUE BOOK

BY CORINNE LOWE.
NEW YORK.—[Special Correspondence.]—No longer is the organically made always with the wide skirt. Even newer is the straight line as shown in the above. The color here is white, and the play of knife-plaited ruffles is only less interesting than the engineering of the sleeves and shoulder line. A wide sash of hydrangea blue taffeta repeats its color in the lining of the skirt and back section of the skirt.

TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.
Black Currant Jelly.

Wash and stem one pound of black currants, or as many pounds as you choose. Add one-half cup of water or a bit more to each pound, and cook till tender. Drain off the juice, using jelly bag or cheese cloth.

Mix this juice with equal quantities of sugar, stir until sugar is thoroughly dissolved, pour into small jelly glasses, set in sun under glass, and in an hour or two you have a delicate jelly, preferable. It seems to me, to a cooked black currant jelly, whether by itself or mixed half and half with red currant juice.

There is something foxy or spicy or queerly indescribable about the flavor of black currants. Cooked with sugar this flavor is strong. It is so pronounced that some people do not like it. But it is far less pronounced in the jelly made by the recipe above, that is, without being cooked with sugar, than when it is cooked with sugar. It is quite possible to cook almost any fruit juice with sugar until it has a strong flavor, due wholly to cooking and not characteristic of the fruit.

Just now I am beginning to think that we might make nearly all of our jellies by simply adding sugar to the juice of fruits, without putting the mixture to the fire. If we test a fruit juice for pectin, and find it jelling the way a rich juice will, there is all probability that it will jelly with sugar.

EMBARRASSING MOMENTS

He Got It.
I had just completed writing an article on the most embarrassing moment of my life, and was on the way to the postoffice to mail the manuscript, when I stopped in at a soda fountain for some refreshments. Several women were present and some that I knew.

Evidently I was still thinking about my manuscript, for when the clerk asked me for my order I said: "I have left it in an embarrassing moment." I'll not attempt to explain my feelings, but I will say that I have the honor of giving the management a new idea. A new dish now on their list is called "embarrassing moments."

DORIS BLAKE'S ANSWERS

"Dear Miss Blake: I am a girl 17 years of age. I have been going with a young man three years my senior, whom I love and admire very much.

"He seems to care for me quite a good deal and likes my appearance, all except the way I do my hair. I wear rather large puffs. Sometimes when I am out with him he calls them names, such as coodle garages, rats' nests, etc., even before others. He says he would respect me more if I would fix my hair plain. But when I do my hair in a more simple fashion my friends laugh at me. What shall I do?"

"Is 11 o'clock too late to arrive home from a show or some other such place?"
"Is it all right to allow him to kiss me good night, even though we are not engaged?"
"Is the boy just teasing you about your hair? Or perhaps they are like unto the terrible things he calls them. You might hit upon a happy compromise by studying your mirror.
No later than 11, and that only when your parents' approval is part of the plan.

BEAUTY ANSWERS
BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY.
MRS. M. C. B.: SOME WOMEN suffer from swollen ankles in hot weather, and the trouble disappears with the cold days. If this does not prove so with you, you would better consult a physician, as there must be some internal reason which he could diagnose and prescribe for.

Last Sunday Joey went to church with his daddy. When he came home, he said, "What do you know about this? There were only five customers today!"

While at play Bernice came upon a piece of rough red brick. She seized it and brought it home, exclaiming, "See, mother, this is a piece of the same goods our house is made of."

Lillian, showing a picture, said: "This is my uncle." Her brother Francis looked puzzled for a moment; suddenly his face brightened, as though with a happy gleam of intelligence, when, he replied: "Half of him's mine."

IMPORTED FURS

The Tip of the Flame of Fashion

Models come to us from Brandt and Worth—and such master furriers of Paris and Monte Carlo as Beer, Madame George, Yungman and Havel. In the world of American and French designers, these names stand for beauty and the tip of the flame of fashion. Look above—and see for yourself that the ways of Agnes are chic beyond compare. A sleek, glossy pelt of seal in the hands of such an artist—with bouffant wired hips, small daring waist, irresistible high cuffs, becomes "Princess Charmant," a model undeniably modern, yet possessing the air and grace of a courtesan in the days of the Louis.

To slip into the close, warm beauty of a fur wrap gives that final softening charm, desired by the wide-awake woman of today. In our splendid, new importations, among the exquisite wraps—the soft grey of squirrel, the deeper, glossier tones of mole skin, the rich brown of mink, and sable with its sunshine lustre—each woman will find a fur meant for her. A gorgeous display enough to set one in a panic of delight.

When you see for yourself, you will be convinced that there is nothing in the world more lovely than these coats of fur—unless it be the lining! Kolinsky and mink turn themselves inside out to display orange gold fabrics; mole and seal are brightened by that indescribable color of green, brocaded with silver; squirrel flaunts a rose-flash—every coat keeps harmony with its soft delicate lining.

Kittredge attempted to flee the scene of the accident but for the persistence of Kagan's companions, who secured a taxi, overtook him, and clung to the rear until a policeman was taken into custody.

Fled from the scene of the accident, Kittredge was following course down Clark street when the accident occurred. He was driving a mobile at racing speed, and was killed by a taxi, overtook him, and clung to the rear until a policeman was taken into custody.

STELK THRO

UNGRATEFUL

AS CITY'S

Declaring he was dissatisfied with the public life of the city, Judge Stelk yesterday asked Chief Justice Harry Olson to appoint another jurist to sit in his place. "I want to give more of my time to private affairs," he stated. He denied that he would seek election as county judge or to any other office. During his five and one-half years on the municipal bench, it is said, Judge Stelk became convinced that the courts do much to the city as does the granting of a political or personal life to the public life. Judge Stelk's term of office expires in December. As he has been at the bench at an advanced age, he will be able to devote more time to his private affairs.

CROWE ORDERS KITTREDGE CASE TO BE REOPENED

Autoist Who Ran Boy
Down Faces Quiz.

Chief Justice Robert E. Crowe of the criminal court yesterday directed the grand jury to reopen the case of Ben Kittredge, wealthy Evanston country dealer, who, driving his automobile at racing speed while intoxicated, ran down and killed Frank Kagan, a youth of 17, in North Clark street several weeks ago.

Kittredge attempted to flee from the scene of the accident at the time and for the persistence of one of Kagan's companions, who commanded a taxi, overtook the Kittredge car, and, clinging to the running board, he was able to get into the car and was taken to the hospital.

The case was investigated by the grand jury, but that body voted a "no bill" after it was shown that Kagan's father had accepted a cash settlement of $10,000 from Kittredge and refused to prosecute a civil suit against the motorist.

Justice Crowe told the jurors yesterday that the only way wholesome respect for the law could be maintained was by demonstration of the law's impartiality.

"And apart from the civil responsibility in this case," he said, "there is a criminal action which concerns the people of the state of Illinois independently of how the family personally feel about it."

Justice Crowe instructed the jurors to consider the evidence in the case upon this week.

During the case, Judge John Stalla, who presided over the case, said that he was not a judge of fact, but a judge of law, and that he was not a judge of the merits of the case, but a judge of the law.

Justice Crowe said that he was not a judge of fact, but a judge of law, and that he was not a judge of the merits of the case, but a judge of the law.

Justice Crowe said that he was not a judge of fact, but a judge of law, and that he was not a judge of the merits of the case, but a judge of the law.

"BUDDIES"

BY SHEPPARD BUTLER.

In "Buddies," at the Woods, we are still in France. The time is 1919 and the place somewhere in Brittany—a pleasant locality, it seems, for love, laughter, and wonderment as to whether the next order will be for the Coblentz bridgehead or Bordeaux and home.

Since Mr. Wilson insists that we remain at war, we cannot quarrel with Mr. George V. Hobart for offering us another war play. So, in a complaisant mood, we consider the pleasant situation of Miss Peggy Wood, laboring with a Breton accent and enamored of an American doughboy billeted on the parental farm, who is so fettered by bashfulness that every time she looks at him "he is so all to smash."

Matters become serious when a flamboyant blackmailer turns up in the person of Edward Durand, an engaging villain, who does the best acting in the play and threatens to expose a family skeleton unless he gets money or the Breton maid's hand in marriage.

You need not be told how it all comes out, for you probably will want to investigate the matter in person. If you do you will find "Buddies" an entertainingly sentimental hybrid of song and story—mostly story, but tricked out with a song or two by E. C. Hillman, one of which, a stirring march melody called "Hello, Home!" is capital. Mr. Hobart's humor at times is rather doubtful, but nobody seems to care.

Miss Wood sings alluringly in a still small voice and bestows on the piece much better acting than it deserves, as do several other members of the cast. The hitherto impeccable Mr. Brian's doughboy slang and mannerisms (for there's a fight) are events in themselves.

Last night's audience received the play rapturously and compelled Miss Wood, properly reluctant, to make a speech.

Justice Crowe said that he was not a judge of fact, but a judge of law, and that he was not a judge of the merits of the case, but a judge of the law.

'SNAPPY' PARTIES AT U. OF I. BREAK UP 'PROF'S' HOME

Two Teachers Quit After Raid by Police.

[BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]
Champaign, Ill., Aug. 2.—A series of snappy parties given by a wife of a professor of the University of Illinois, an unsuccessful police raid, and the rapid run of rumors throughout the summer school body resulted yesterday in President Kinley announcing that two members of the faculty will not be with the school when the fall term opens. Two other instructors have been mentioned, but as yet have not been requested to resign.

It is reported a few Champaign business men will be implicated in the tale. One man announced over a long distance telephone to a Tribune reporter that suit for alienation of the affections of his wife would be begun within a few days against a prominent resident of Champaign.

Theresea Divoce Action.
This professor also says he expects to file suit for a divorce. The two instructors who will not be with the school when the fall term opens are Prof. Leroy Wilson and Ralph Jones, who were in the athletic department here. Both have accepted positions with other schools. Prof. Wilson had resigned before the matter came to the president's attention, but President Kinley asserted the result would have been the same. Jones has accepted a position as athletic director of a north shore suburb of Chicago.

The parties, at least some of them, are said to have been held in the home of the complaining professor, which was located on the edge of town. It was there the police went one night, in response to a call from the professor. The house was surrounded, but "the man in the case" was not found.

Kinley Takes Action.
Sitting in the office in the Commerce building yesterday, President Kinley told the following story to a Tribune reporter:

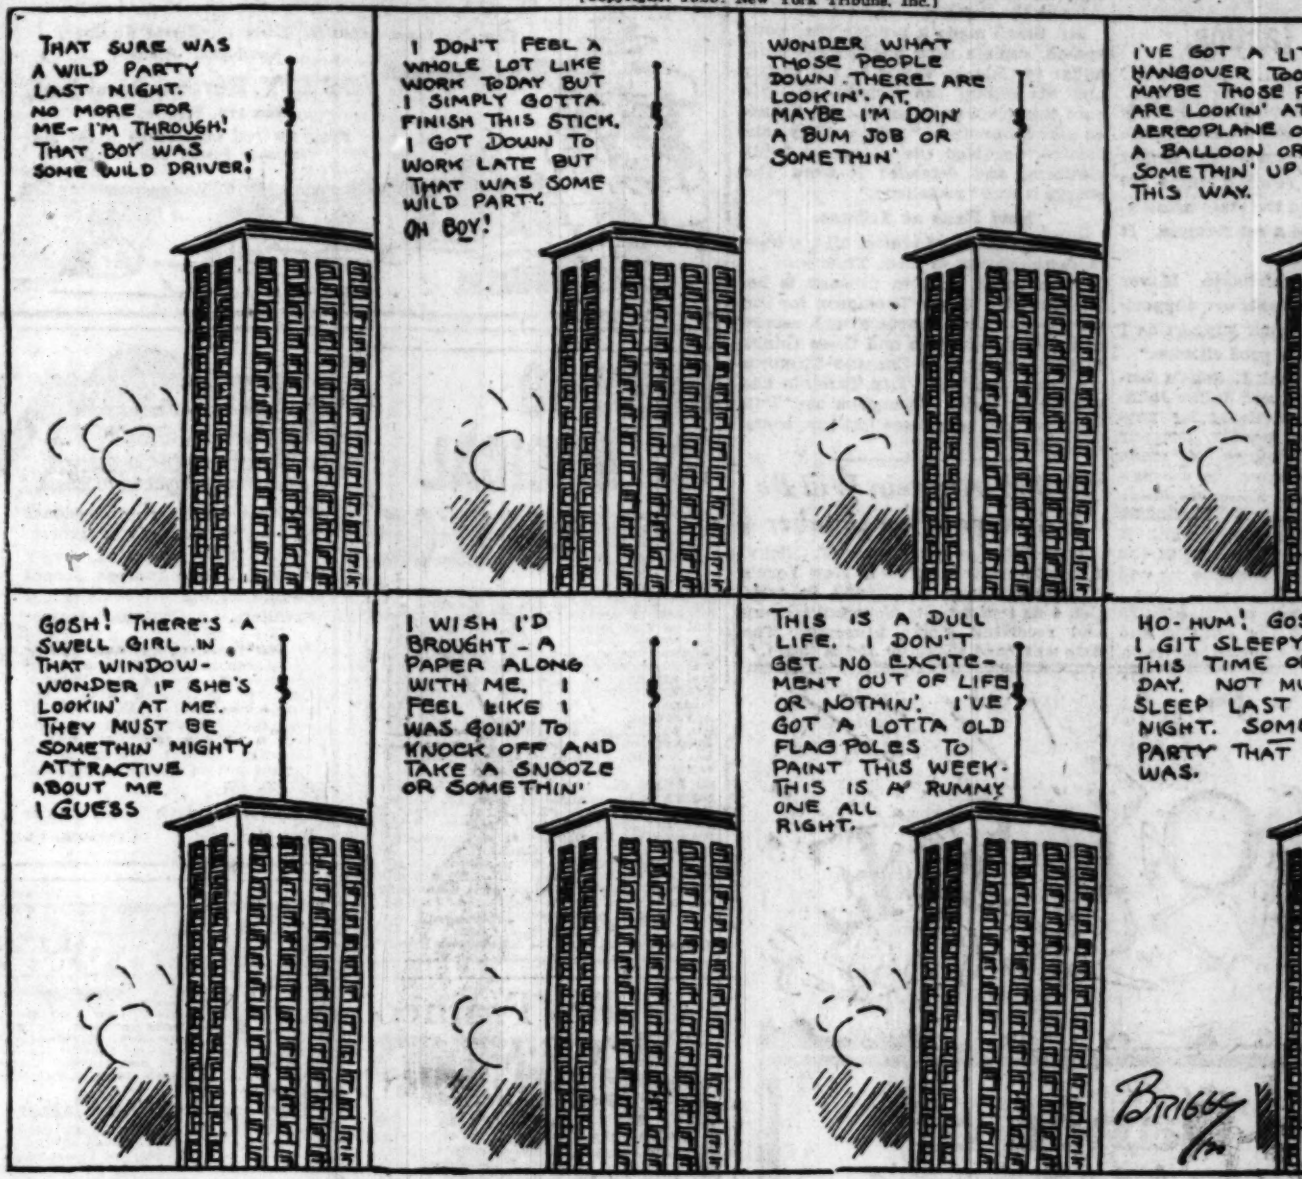

"The first I heard of this affair was when the dean of the engineering school came to me and said the one of the professors was in great trouble. This professor came before me. He told his story. From what I learned, I asked the resignations of one professor. Another had previously resigned. Another man was away visiting at the time. He wrote to me saying that he might resign in the fall. I sent him a telegram assuring that I could not wait until then for a definite answer. He may not be involved."

The whole matter is very regrettable, but out of 1,000 instructors and 8,000 students it is not unreasonable to expect that some prove troublesome. The university has done everything in its power to straighten the matter up. I don't think any more instructors or students were implicated. If there are—well, there will be more resignations."

WONDER WHAT A STEEPLEJACK THINKS ABOUT

MOST NEW-WEDS NOW GO TO 'LIVE WITH MOTHER'

Chicago brides and their new husbands do not fear their mothers-in-law.

Investigation conducted by S. C. Legner, chief marriage license clerk of Cook county, shows that a majority of young folks who obtained marriage licenses during 1920 have begun married life in the homes of either the bride or the bridegroom's parents.

Banner Year for Marriages.
Records compiled by Legner show that 1920 will be a banner year for the issuance of marriage certificates. Already 4,500 more licenses have been issued in the first seven months of the year than in corresponding months of 1919. The number in July was 2,348. Last year the number in the same month was 2,916.

Fewer "Salaried" Men Wed.
An interesting fact developed by Mr. Legner's investigation is that while the number of licenses issued to members of the "salaried" class is steadily decreasing, the number issued to members of the laboring class is steadily growing.

A. J. EDDY HEIRS TO FOLLOW WILL
HE NEVER SIGNED

Even though death prevented the signing of a second will by Arthur J. Eddy, lawyer and art connoisseur, its provisions will be faithfully carried out by his widow and son.

Mrs. Lucy C. Eddy, 4152 Sheridan road, and Jerome O. Eddy announced yesterday when the first will was filed for probate. Attorneys estimate the estate at over $600,000. Mr. Eddy had set July 24 as the date for signing the second will. His funeral was held on that day.

NURSES WOUNDED YANK TO HEALTH AND THEN WEDS HIM

Cupid tagged the boche machine gun bullet that found Charles W. Ruckel of Spring field, Ill., in one of the last engagements of the Argonne offensive.

There he was nursed back to health by Miss Marion Plaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Plaw of 311 North Wacker avenue, (Lewis-Smith Photo.)

At the age of 5 years Miss Plaw was picked by Walter Russell, portrait painter, as the most perfect girl in the United States. The field of entrants was nation wide.

Ruckel did not know anything about Russell's selection years before, but he had entered an opinion of his own which exactly coincided. The result was the announcement by the girl's parents last April of the engagement to be followed by a wedding this fall.

But there will be no fall wedding. They were quietly married on June 5.

BUILDING BOOM IS BLOCKED BY MATERIAL COST

Old Hi Cost has knocked most of the noise out of Chicago's building boom.

According to E. H. Nordlie, chief plan examiner for the city, the present cost of labor and materials accounts for the flattening out of the boom to which the city's payers of high rents pinned their hopes following the settlement of the winter long building trades strike.

U. S. AID TRAILS CON MAN FOR 30 YEARS; GETS 'IM

Thirty years ago Capt. William Forsythe of the United States secret service started out to put Eugene L. Flanagan, former police magistrate and Chicago confidence man de luxe, behind prison bars.

The precise details of the original case are lost in antiquity. They are unimportant at this juncture, furthermore, because the statutes of limitations ran ere Flanagan could be brought to the mere.

But the mere loss of a complaining witness did not deter Forsythe. At such times as the pressure of other duties permitted he wove the strands of his net—only to see them severed by he could be the final knots.

Elmer Furman Here, a service man experienced that discomfiture. Having purchased $150,000 worth of canceled Rock Island railroad bonds at prices ranging from $4.50 to $7.50 per $1,000, Flanagan had put his persuasive powers to use in inducing various persons of wealth to acquire them at their full face value. The police seized him, and he was sentenced to a year in the house of correction.

Forsythe planned to trap him upon his liberation. But the machinery of the law slipped a cog at about the time Flanagan was set free.

So it was not until very recently that the name of his enemy came again to Forsythe's attention. A number of New York bankers complained that he had sold them $2,500 in stolen Liberty bonds.

Trailed Into Texas.
Shortly a coterie of investors in an oil company came forward. They had given Flanagan $5,000, they said, and dispatched him to the Texas fields to drill on their holdings.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

Today's Question.
Did you come out to see a baseball game or to see Babe Ruth?

Where Asked.
At the Sox ball park.

The Answer.
H. L. Bell, 1230 West Van Buren street, machinery supplies—I came out to see a ball game. I want to see the Sox and New York play ball. Babe Ruth is only a feature of the game to me. Of course, I should enjoy seeing him knock a home run if it doesn't beat the Sox.

Mrs. Joe Jackson, Trenton hotel, housewife—If I told you I came out here to see Babe Ruth play ball there would be a riot in the family. I came out here to see my husband play baseball. If Babe Ruth knocks a home run that's a part of the game to me.

H. M. De Silva, Surf apartments, automobile tinner—I came out to see the Sox play a game and to see Babe Ruth. I hope he knocks a home run so that we can see it. No one player is better than the whole game.

Mrs. John Sullivan Jr., Savannah, Ga., housewife—I came out to see the Sox play a game and to see Babe Ruth. I hope he knocks a home run so that we can see it. No one player is better than the whole game.

CASH BALANCE VS. BANKRUPTCY A STATE ISSUE

Oglesby Cites Thompson
Regime's Methods.

East St. Louis, Ill., Aug. 2.—[Special.]—"Bankruptcy vs. a balance in the treasury," was one of the issues in the Republican state primary campaign Lieut. Gov. John G. Oglesby, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, told St. Clair county voters here tonight. He spoke at Alton in the afternoon.

The lieutenant governor continued his denunciation of Thompsonism and the Thompson-Lundin state candidates, dealing largely with the bankruptcy in which the Thompson regime had plunged Chicago. He told the voters that in July there was a balance of $16,000,000 in the state treasury and that at the same time there was a deficit of about the same amount in the Chicago treasury. He asked them if they wanted to place in control of the state men named by the man who had created the deficit or whether they preferred to endorse the present state administration.

Injustice to Chicago Taxpayer.
"William Hale Thompson and his associates have bankrupted the treasury of the City of Chicago," he said. "They are in default to the creditors of the city, working an injustice to those creditors, and a reflection upon the good name of the city."

"During the current year they have already disbursed next year's revenue and the overburdened taxpayers of that city are confronted with a continually mounting indebtedness of millions of dollars. The current press carries the story that the banks of Chicago, as a means of salvaging the situation, are mounting certificates of indebtedness."

Economy Slogan in State.
"How does this situation, thus briefly told, compare with the businesslike accomplishment of the state government of Illinois? Every effort and every energy of our state government has been toward the application of economy and efficiency. Under the adoption of the budget system under the present Republican state administration the cost of our state government has been kept within the appropriations made by the legislature."

"In the face of all increased cost of commodities, the state's rate has been reduced 20 per cent, while government costs everywhere else in the United States have mounted with the general increase in prices."

Deficit in Chicago Treasury.
"On the last of July of this year in the state treasury there was a net balance of over $16,000,000, while the deficit in the treasury of the City of Chicago reached about the same amount."

These comparisons are important to the voters of this state. They are sufficient, in my judgment, to cause voters to place their stamp of disapproval upon the Thompson organization, which with wanton waste, has piled up deficit upon deficit and a burden which the taxpayers of this state will be many years in effectually discharging."

FLAYS CITY HALL WASTE
Chicago is drifting into a receivership as a result of the financial crisis precipitated by the Thompson city administration, Senator William McCormick yesterday told Republican leaders of Cook county. Those who heard the senator speak had gathered at the new county headquarters, at 109 North Dearborn street, to open the Cook county primary campaign against Thompsonism.

TESTERDAY'S AVERAGES

Table with 4 columns: High, Low, Close, Net. Rows for various stock indices and averages.

The New York Times

New York, Aug. 3.—[Special.]—The heavy sales and abrupt declines of feature stocks which occurred today after an initial rally, resulted from the railroad rate increase, came from causes apart from sentiment over prospects for the railways. There was general approval in financial quarters of the interstate commerce commission award and the early gains of 10 points in such issues as Reading, Southern Pacific, New York Central, and others, were followed by a sharp decline. The market was characterized by a heavy volume of trading, and the closing was a little higher than the opening.

CHICAGO STOCK TRANSACTIONS

Table with 4 columns: Div. Yield, Bid, Asked, Description. Rows for various stocks including Am. Tobacco, Am. Wire, etc.

An increase of more than a million bales in the prospective production of cotton over the indicated yield of a month ago was forecast yesterday by the department of agriculture. A total of 12,519,000 bales was estimated from the condition of the crop July 25, while the condition June 25, forecasted 11,450,000 bales was forecasted from the condition June 25.

U. S. Steel Declines

U. S. Steel declined 1/2 point to 107 1/2. The decline was due to a heavy volume of selling, and the market was characterized by a heavy volume of trading, and the closing was a little higher than the opening.

THE LYON & HEALY APARTMENT GRAND PIANO

ONE of the most charming bits of music in the Greenwich Village Follies is produced by the introduction of a piano played very softly.

An original feature in the Lyon & Healy Apartment Grand is

THE SILENTO

This is a little lever which operates a mute. The tone becomes so soft as to be nearly inaudible, yet the quality remains thoroughly charming. For practicing, THE SILENTO, is simply invaluable.

Other remarkable improvements, like the Candelectra, or twin electric lights, are also exclusive with the Lyon & Healy Apartment Grand.
